TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

Scientific publishers/Printer/NIT, Rourkela and authors share a common interest in the production of copyright: authors principally because they want their creative works to be protected from plagiarism and other unlawful uses, publishers because they need to protect their work and investment in the production, marketing and distribution of the article written by the author. In order to do so effectively, publishers/Printers/NIT, Rourkela need a formal written transfer of copyright from the author(s) for each article published. We therefore ask you to complete and return this form promptly, retaining a copy for your records. Your cooperation is essential and appreciated.

Article entitled:

Author(s):

To be published/printed in an edited volume/Proceedings (in hard/soft copy form) title to be specified by the special issue editor and the publishers Printer/NIT, Rourkela

Effective upon acceptance for publication, copyright (including all rights thereunder and the right to obtain copyright registration in the name of the publisher/Printer/NIT, Rourkela, whether separately or as a part of a book or otherwise) in the above article is hereby transferred throughout the world and for the full term and all extensions and renewals thereof jointly to

THE PUBLISHER/PRINTER/NIT ROURKELA, ORISSA.

This transfer includes the right to adapt the article for use in conjunction with computer systems and programs, including reproduction or publication in machine-readable form and incorporation in retrieval systems.

Rights of Authors

It recognizes the retention of the following rights by the author(s):

1. Patent and trademark rights and rights to any process or procedure described in the article.
2. The right to photocopy or make single electronic copies of the article for their own personal use, including for their classroom use, or for the personal use of colleagues, provided the copies are not offered for sale and are not distributed in a systematic way outside of their employing institution (e.g. via an e-mail list or public file server). Posting of the article on a secure network (not Accessible to the public) within the Author's institution is permitted.
3. The right, subsequent to publication, to use the article or any part thereof free of charge in a printed compilation of works of their own, such as collected writings or lecture notes.

Note: All copies, paper or electronic, or other use of information must include an indication of the present Proceedings

Authorship

If the article was prepared jointly with author(s), the signing author has informed the co-author (s) of the terms of this copyright transfer and is signing on their behalf as their agent and represents that he or she is authorized to do so. Please confirm by checking the appropriate box following
