Dear Colleagues,

Greetings from NIT Rourkela, Odisha

The one week GIAN Course on “Automotive Design Approaches” which was scheduled to be held during December 04-09, 2017 with International Automotive Designer and Consultant ‘Mr. Boris Fabris’, Turin, Italy is temporarily been cancelled since the foreign expert has intimated his inability to travel due to his personal reasons.

The candidates are informed that they may not register to this course till any further alternatives are seen. Those who have registered may send their account details of NEFT payment to the course coordinator so that their fees may be reimbursed.

For any query, you may contact the course coordinator.

Thanks and regards,

Dr. Mohammed Rajik Khan
